

CONSORTIUM FOR CULTURE AND MEDICINE SEMINAR

Border Crossings:
Communication Across Cultures & Languages in Health Care

Jeremy Brunson, PhD
Sociology and Interpretation
Gallaudet University

Monu Chhetri
Founder and Advocate
Deaf Refugee Coalition – Syracuse

Jennifer Wissman
Interpreter
Master's Candidate, European Master in Sign Language Interpreting

Thursday, March 19, 2015

4 to 5:30 pm

1507/1508 Setnor
766 Irving Ave. (at intersection of Waverly and Irving)

Upstate Medical University

A professor of sociology and sign language interpretation, a Deaf Bhutanese woman who leads the community-wide Deaf Refugee Coalition in Syracuse, and a sign language interpreter with international experience discuss issues of cultural and linguistic differences in health care and best practices for cross-cultural communication and collaboration.

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

WHEELCHAIR ACCESSIBLE/ASL INTERPRETERS

For more information, contact Consortium Coordinator Lois Dorschel at dorschel@upstate.edu or Executive Director Rebecca Garden, PhD, at gardenr@upstate.edu or 315.464.8451.

Consortium for Culture and Medicine:

www.upstate.edu/ccm